No Grumbling, Please

“Do not grumble.” – 1 Corinthians 10:10

Grumbling and complaining are not what I want from you. When you grumble, you are telling Me that you don’t like the way things are going in your life – that you hate My way of doing things. And when you complain, you are showing an ungrateful heart.

Thankfulness is your protection against the sins of grumbling and complaining. Being thankful also keeps you close to Me. So – when you have too much homework, when your parents give you an extra chore, or when I’ve said “not now” to one of your prayers – don’t grumble or mumble under your breath. Instead, thank Me for the things that upset you. Before you know it, you will start to see those things differently. And you’ll start to feel better too.
