Let Your Problems Lift You Up

“So we do not give up. Our physical body is becoming older and weaker, but our spirit inside us is made new every day.” – 2 Corinthians 4:16

When a problem pops up in your life, be glad. It isn’t just a problem. It’s a chance to see things from My point of view.

A problem gives you two choices. You can get upset and throw a fit, which will take you down into a pit of feeling sorry for yourself. Or you can see the problem as a ladder, a chance to climb up into My Presence. There, in the Light of My Presence, you can see your problem as I see it – a temporary thing that will go away in time. You may even learn something from it.

This world will tell you that problems bring you down and make you weaker. But I say, problems are a chance for you to be lifted up and made stronger.
